

Announcing Springboard's New (Improved) Website
-enhancing almost everything but the address!

August 11, 2008

Dear John,

After a year of enjoying a beautiful website, we have released an updated and revised site with new images, simpler text and navigation, more resource links, and expanded teleclasses and programs!

Using a puzzle theme to tell the "Springboard Story", we illustrate our role in connecting you with resources and services, including articles, classes and teleclasses, group and individual memberships, and professional and life simplification resources. Our unique and innovative new site better conveys and supports our philosophy of offering information and expertise to member- clients and professionals as well.

Our new Springboard Membership is a tremendous value, and is perfect for anyone with access to the internet. It is also available as a gift.

See our Home Page to participate in the launch of our Membership Campaign and Drawing beginning today through September 25. <http://www.LaunchingNewLives.com>.

Warm regards,

Janice, Ann, and Greg
